Lord Jesus,

You said to your disciples:

'The harvest indeed is great but the labourers are few.'

We ask that we may know and follow the vocation

to which you have called us.

We pray for those called to serve:

those whom you have called,

those you are calling now,

and those you will call in the future.

may they be open and responsive to the call of serving your people.

Amen.

Reflection Gandhi and the untouchables

In India the untouchables did not belong to any caste.

They were barred from the temples.

In the cities they lived in the slums, and did only the most menial jobs.

In the country they were forbidden to use the wells.

Yet it was precisely the untouchables whom the great Mahatma Gandhi befriended.

He ate and drank with them, and played with their children.

He once said: 'I do not want to be reborn.

But if that should happen, I would like to find myself among the untouchables in order to share the suffering they are subjected to. In this way, I would have the chance to liberate them and myself from their miserable condition.'
